

Universal Non-Analytic Fermi Liquid Behavior of an SU(N) Fermi Gas

venerdì 27 ottobre 2017 17:10 (25 minuti)

We theoretically study the non-analytic equation of state of a cold SU(N) Fermi gas. It has been known that Landau's Fermi liquid theory yields non-analytic corrections to density and spin susceptibility, but a good comparison between theory and experiment has been lacking due to, among other reasons, difficulties in quantifying quasi-particle interactions. Cold quantum gas is ideal for investigating this long-standing problem, for it offers direct experimental access to the equation of state, and the emergent SU(N) symmetry can potentially boost the non-analytic behavior. Our theoretical effort maps out the equation of state, and reveal non-analytic crossover behavior stemming from the interplay of temperature and effective magnetic field.

Autore principale: Dr. HOW, Pye Ton (Institute of Physics, Academia Sinica)

Coautore: Dr. YIP, Sung-Kit (Institute of Physics, Academia Sinica)

Relatore: Dr. HOW, Pye Ton (Institute of Physics, Academia Sinica)

Classifica Sessioni: Talks on Specific Talks - III