

SiPM Workshop

from fundamental research to industrial applications

Bari, Italy, 2-4 October 2019

BULLETIN #2. SiPM workshop: from fundamental research to industrial applications

General information

This is the second announcement of the conference “SiPM workshop: from fundamental research to industrial applications” to be held in Bari, Italy from October 2, 2019 to October 4, 2019. The conference is organized by Università degli Studi di Bari, Politecnico di Bari and Istituto Nazionale di Fisica Nucleare di Bari. The main goal of the workshop is to review the main fields in which Silicon Photomultipliers (SiPMs) are being employed, understand the present limitations and define R&D goals for their improvement.

⇒ More information is available at the conference website <https://agenda.infn.it/event/17801/>
