Traveling to Bari

Bari is served by the International Airport Karol Wojtyla, situated in Bari Palese. It is very well connected with Rome, Milan and many other Italian and International airports. The airport is 20 minutes away from the city center and is connected to the main station by train or shuttle bus. Trains are available approximately every 40 minutes and it takes 20 minutes to the main station "Bari Centrale". For shuttle buses, more information is available at this link: <http://www.autoservizitempesta.it> .

The main station "Bari Centrale" is in the city center.

Taxi is also available, with fares from Airport of about 30€ and from Main Station of about 10€
