

Contribution ID: 69

Type: not specified

Systemtic Uncertainties in B_K calculated using staggered fermions

Tuesday, 15 June 2010 18:00 (5 minutes)

We discuss about the systematic errors in B_K calculated on the MILC lattices using improved staggered fermions. We address unresolved issues on the finite volume effect, dependence of B_K on the light sea quark masses, dependence of B_K on the strange sea quark mass, and so on.

Please, insert your presentation type (talk, poster)

poster

Primary author: JANG, Yong-Chull (Department of Physics and Astronomy, Seoul National University)

Co-authors: Dr JUNG, Chulwoo (Physics Department, Brookhaven National Laboratory); Prof. SHARPE, Stephen (Physics Department, University of Washington); Prof. LEE, Weonjong (Department of Physics and Astronomy, Seoul National University)

Presenter: JANG, Yong-Chull (Department of Physics and Astronomy, Seoul National University)

Session Classification: Poster session

Track Classification: Standard model parameters and renormalization