

Production and characterization of ultra-pure copper for low background applications

G. Zuzel¹, T. Mroz¹, J. Perez-Perez¹, M. Wojcik¹, S. Stoch², M. Laubenstein³

¹) M. Smoluchowski Institute of Physics, Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland;

²) Wieliczka Salt Mine S.A., Wieliczka, Poland; ³) INFN-LNGS, Assergi, Italy

JAGIELLONIAN
UNIVERSITY

- 2 tons of copper was produced as shielding material for a low background spectrometer
- Cu block cast from selected cathodes
- Cosmic ray exposure minimized during production, underground storage
- Purity investigated with respect to various isotopes
- Measurements confirmed very high radio-purity of the material

Poster 111

