

The logo for EURO LABS features the word "EURO" in blue, with the letter "O" replaced by the European Union flag. To the right of "EURO" is a stylized particle detector symbol consisting of a vertical line with a blue square at the top, two yellow squares in the middle, and a blue line extending downwards. To the right of this symbol is the word "LABS" in blue. A large yellow arc is positioned behind the "EURO" text, and a smaller yellow arc is positioned above it.
