

Università Roma Tre
Dipartimento di Fisica e Sezione INFN
via della Vasca Navale 84 – 00146 Roma

Venerdi 27 Maggio 2011
ore 14:00 aula C

Seminario:

Higgs boson studies in vector boson modes

Prof. William Murray
Rutherford Appleton Laboratory

Abstract

The Higgs search at ATLAS is entering a transition phase. This years data will focus the field as never before. The diboson search is a key to this, covering the mass region from 120 to 600 GeV and more. The state of theses analyses in 3 and 4 generation models is reviewed and possible developments from the summer considered.