

Erasmus @ NKUA

National and Kapodistrian University of Athens usually referred simply as University of Athens

est 1837, largest in Greece

situated in the capital (population 3.6 million)

direct flights with most EU capitals

Athens International Airport, METRO

41.454

Undergraduate students

25.417

Postgraduate and Ph.D. students

8.255

Foreign students

2.109

Academic Staff

1.021

Administrative Staff

42

Departments

HELLENIC REPUBLIC

National and Kapodistrian
University of Athens

EST. 1837

ΑΘΗΝΑ

NKUA Physics Department

<https://en.phys.uoa.gr/>

5 Sections

Condensed Matter Physics

Nuclear and Particle Physics

Astrophysics, Astronomy and Mechanics

Environmental Physics & Meteorology

Electronic Physics and Systems

68 Professors

~150 incoming students / year

Erasmus Code

G ATHINE01

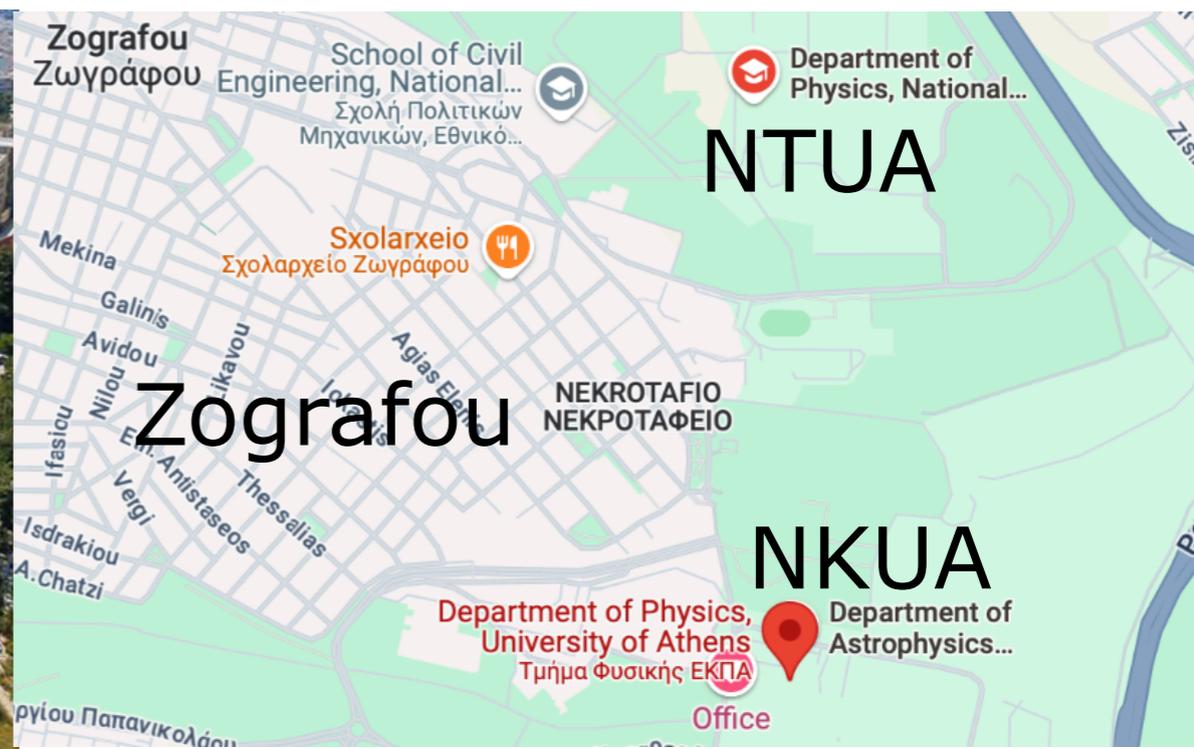

Language

Greek (B1+) for undergraduate

Greek/English for master/PhD

English for Faculty (5 days visit) campus is situated at the foothills of Hymettos, in close proximity to the National Technical University of Athens which is the largest polytechnic in Greece. Zografou area is typically full of students day / night

NKUA

<https://en.uoa.gr/>

NKUA Physics Department

<https://en.phys.uoa.gr/>

NKUA Office of International relations

<http://en.interel.uoa.gr/erasmus.html>

Prospective students from Bari are welcome to contact me at ktheofi@phys.uoa.gr if they wish to connect with Italian Erasmus students who were at NKUA last year and can provide firsthand insights into student life in Athens