

XLZD Inaugural Awards

Laura Baudis and Kimberly Palladino
June 2025

Alvine Kamaha and Tina Pollmann

For leading the Science working group (WG1) and holding regular meetings using a rotating schedule to accommodate global timezones and coordinating simulation efforts with minimal resources

Alvine Kamaha, UCLA

Tina Pollmann,
UvA, NIKEF

Alexandre Lindote

For leading the neutrinoless double beta decay studies and bringing the relevant sensitivity studies to publication

Alex Lindote, Coimbra

Theresa Fruth

For leading the design book editing and bringing to it publication

Theresa Fruth, Sydney

