

Where does the spin of the proton come from?

Wednesday, 12 September 2012 09:10 (25 minutes)

Summary

The progress of lattice calculations toward the study of the quark and glue momenta and angular momenta is reviewed. I will show a complete calculation which includes quark contributions in both the connected and disconnected insertions as well as the contribution from the glue.

Primary author: Prof. LIU, Keh-Fei (University of Kentucky)

Presenter: Prof. LIU, Keh-Fei (University of Kentucky)

Session Classification: Spin Physics (I)

Track Classification: Spin Physics