

GGI 20th Anniversary

16-17 March
GGI Arcetri, Firenze

In 2006 the Galileo Galilei Institute for Theoretical Physics, established through a partnership between INFN and the University of Florence, hosted its first workshop. In 2026 we will celebrate two decades of continuous scientific activity with a workshop taking place at GGI on March 16-17. This event will provide an opportunity for a broad overview of recent developments and for discussions on new challenges across various areas of theoretical physics.
