

14th International Conference on Nuclear Microprobe Technology and Applications

Friday, 11 July 2014

Session 11 - Nuclear Microprobe Applications: Art and Archaeometry - Auditorium (11:00 - 12:30)

-Conveners: Lisa Castelli

time	[id] title	presenter
11:00	[142] Evidences for an Afghan provenance of lapis lazuli utilized for glyptic by ancient Egyptian combining micro-PIXE and XRF results	RE, Alessandro
11:30	[124] Correlation between Ionoluminescence signal and the manufacturing conditions of the clay bodies of ancient tiles	Dr CORREGIDOR, Victoria
11:50	[28] Implementation of ionoluminescence in the IBA micromapping setup of AGLAE facility	Mr PICHON, Laurent
12:10	[47] A comparative study of Etruscan and Tartesic gold jewels by micro-XRF	Mrs SCRIVANO, Simona