

Statement of interest

Is it possible to exp. and theo. define and consider a localisation parameter in heavy ion collisions ?

$$\alpha \hat{=} \frac{b}{r_0}$$

This would allow to provide a complementary and unified approach on the formation of clusters in HIC