

Properties of strongly interacting matter in extreme conditions.

Thursday, 12 February 2015 11:40 (20 minutes)

We discuss recent results obtained by lattice QCD simulations and regarding the properties of strongly interacting matter at finite temperature and density, or in the presence of external background fields.

Presenter: NEGRO, Francesco (PI)